

GST Day Celebration Report

Date: 1st July 2025

Organized by: IQAC, Dept. of Commerce & Dept. of Economics, S.S. Margol College, Shahabad.

S.S. Margol College celebrated GST Day to commemorate the implementation of the Goods and Services Tax (GST) in India. The event aimed to create awareness about the impact of GST on the Indian economy.

Program Highlights:

- Chief Guest: Dr. Surekha M., Assistant Professor, delivered an informative speech on the benefits and challenges of GST.
- Welcome Address: Sri. Vishal Rathod, Lecturer in Computer Science, extended a warm welcome to the chief guest and other dignitaries.
- Presidential Speech: Dr. Laxman T., HOD, Dept. of Commerce, and IQAC Coordinator, highlighted the significance of GST and its effects on businesses and consumers.
- Vote of Thanks: Smt. Sarita, Lecturer in Commerce, proposed a vote of thanks to the chief guest, organizers, and participants.

Attendance:

The event was attended by all staff members and students, who gained valuable insights into the GST system and its implications.

Significance of GST Day:

GST Day marks a significant milestone in India's economic history, aiming to simplify the tax structure and promote economic growth. The celebration aimed to educate students and staff about the importance of GST in the Indian economy.

PHOTO GALLERY

Welcome Speech by Sri. Vishal Rathod, Lecturer in Computer Science

Dr. Surekha, Chief Guest delivering a speech on the benefits and challenges of GST

Presidential Speech by Dr. Laxman, IQAC Coordinator

PHOTO GALLERY

Vote of thanks by Smt. Sarita, Lecturer in Commerce

All Staff and Students participated in the Event