

Report on Sadbhavana Diwas Celebration

Date: 20th August 2025

Welcome and Anchoring: Sri. Shivashankar Hiremath, Lecturer in Kannada, welcomed the gathering and efficiently anchored the program.

Key Highlights

- Introduction: Dr. Laxman, IQAC Coordinator, introduced the theme and significance of Sadbhavana Diwas, emphasizing the importance of promoting communal harmony and national integration.

- Resource Person: Dr. H.B. Sedamkar, Associate Professor, Dept. of Sociology, delivered a thought-provoking session on the role of individuals in fostering communal harmony and national unity.

- Chief Guest Address: Sri. Nagaraj Devatkal, Librarian, highlighted the importance of Sadbhavana Diwas in today's world and encouraged students to promote peace and harmony in their communities.

- Presidential Speech: Dr. G.R. Sthavarmath, Associate Professor, Dept. of English, delivered an inspiring presidential speech, emphasizing the need for communal harmony and national integration.

Attendance and Participation: The celebration was attended by all staff members, including Dr. Surekha, Women's Cell Coordinator, Dr. Kaveri, NSS Program Officer, Dr. Venkataraju, Lecturer in Biology, and students. The event fostered a sense of unity and communal harmony among the participants.

Significance of Sadbhavana Diwas: Sadbhavana Diwas is celebrated to promote communal harmony, national integration, and peace. The event serves as a reminder of the importance of fostering unity and understanding among individuals from diverse backgrounds.

PHOTO GALLERY

Resource Person Dr. H. B. Sedakar Delivering a speech on Sadbhavan Diwas