

Ekta Divas (National Unity Day) Celebration Report

Date: October 31, 2025

Time: 11:00 am

Venue: Computer Lab, S.S. Margol College

The IQAC, NSS Unit, and Dept. of Political Science, S.S. Margol College, celebrated Ekta Divas (National Unity Day) on the 150th birth anniversary of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel.

Program Highlights:

- Resource Person: Sri. Ramanna Ibrahimpur, Lecturer in Political Science, delivered a thought-provoking speech on the life and contributions of Sardar Patel.
- Presidential Speech: Dr. Laxman T, IQAC Coordinator and HOD, Dept. of Commerce, emphasized the importance of national unity and integrity.
- Chief Guests: Dr. G.R. Sthavarmath, Associate Professor in English, Dr. Surekha, Assistant Professor in Economics & Women's Cell Coordinator, Dr. Kaveri H, Physical Director, and Dr. Nagaraj C Devatkal, Librarian, graced the occasion.
- Prayer and Welcome: Smt. Jyothi Gantimath efficiently anchored the program.
- Vote of Thanks: Sri. Shivashankar Hiremath, Lecturer in Kannada, proposed a vote of thanks.

Attendance:

The event was attended by all staff members and students, fostering a sense of unity and patriotism.

Significance of Ekta Divas:

Ekta Divas commemorates the birth anniversary of Sardar Patel, a key figure in India's independence movement and the country's first Deputy Prime Minister. The day promotes national unity, integrity, and awareness about Patel's contributions to India's unity.

PHOTO GALLERY

Chief Guests performing Pooja to the portrait of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel

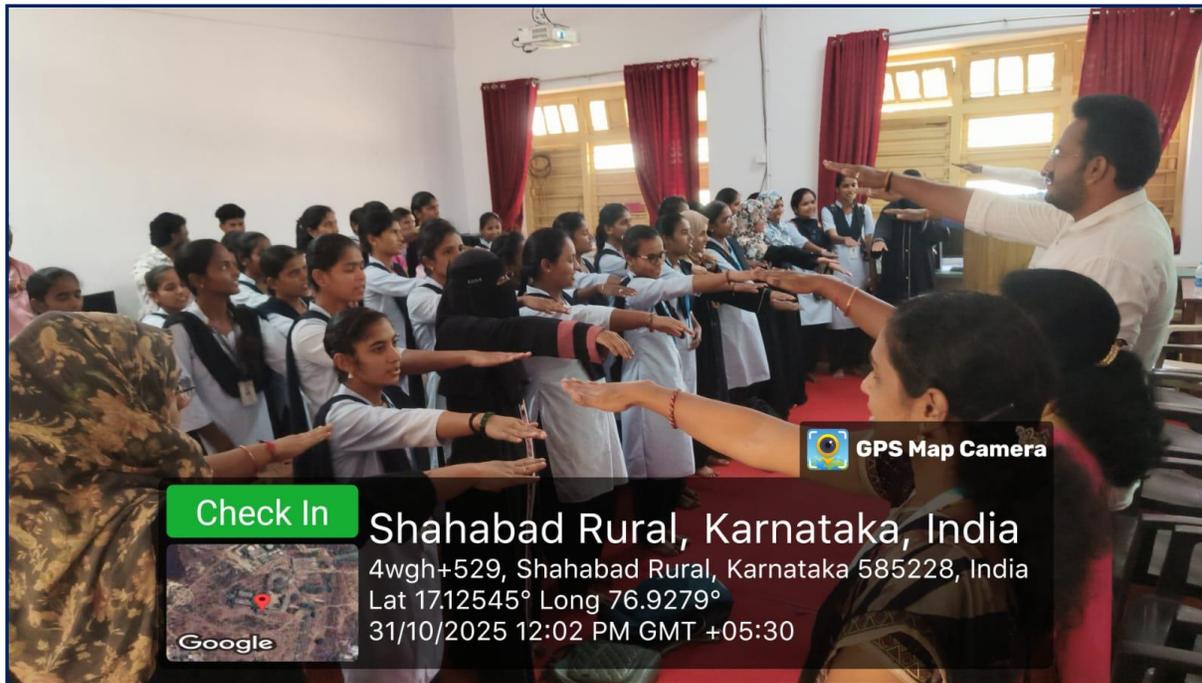

PHOTO GALLERY

Sri. Ramanna Ibrahimpur, Resource Person & Lecturer in Political Science, delivering a speech to staff and students

PHOTO GALLERY

Students and Staff taking the Ekta Pledge: "I pledge to preserve and strengthen the unity, integrity, and sovereignty of India"

