6.1: The governance and leadership is in accordance with vision and mission of the institution and it is visible in various institutional practices such as decentralization and participation in the institutional governance

The organization is equipped with a suitable and organized structure for decentralization and participatory management. The excellent initiative to promote education to all parts is the responsibility of management and administration. The management, IQAC, NAAC Committee, academic staff welfare administration, non-teaching staff, NSS, and all other stakeholders interested in decentralization and participative management help the institution improve quality at all levels. All collaborate to ensure that the institution runs smoothly.

Management: The management allows the principal and employees to collaborate freely and adaptably for the institution's overall growth. All of the college's academic activities are overseen by the academic committee. The institution's perspective plan is developed and implemented on a regular basis by management, who also put in place the necessary effective means to carry it out.

Administration: In the institution's overall development, administration is crucial. The institution is flexible about giving students in this area an excellent education. The college administration plays a very sincere role in the implementation of projects, programmes, and policies related to the institution's vision and mission. The administration makes sure that everything runs well, including admissions, accounts, finances, record-keeping, exams, evaluations, monitoring, and maintenance.

IQAC: The IQAC Cell's coordinator oversees all academic and administrative operations.

Head of Departments: The HODs of various departments and the staff carry out their active roles and duties in line with the college's vision and goal.

Librarian: Also, the librarian is crucial in launching the college's vision and goal.

Physical Director: The Physical Director keeps an eye on the college's athletic affairs and continually keeps track of all the events and activities taking place both within and outside the college. The non-teaching staff is essential to managing and completing the work.
